Potentate

Dear Nobles:

FOR the eighth time I gratefully acknowledge, with deep appreciation, the honor of being elected Potentate of the best Temple in America, and have accepted the office with a full knowledge of the work it entails, also the many pleasant duties. We now have a comfortable working body, about 13,500 members, a membership that can be relied upon to support the Temple in all good works. The members have responded loyally to the edict of the Imperial Council, and the \$2 assessment for Crippled Children is being paid by $99\frac{9}{10}\%$ of our Nobles.

Ten hospitals are projected, one of which will be in New England, and before many years we hope that there will not be a crippled child in America that is capable of improvement that will be denied treatment.

This one fact should make every Noble proud to wear the fez and button. It means Patriotism, Progress, and true Benevolence.

Aleppo Temple made the largest net gain for the year 1921 over any Temple in Shrinedom.

Aleppo is noted for its hospitality and clean fun, and the present Divan will endeavor to guard that reputation—remembering always that we are Masons and acting accordingly.

Constructive criticism or suggestions are always welcome.

Yours always for Aleppo,

Walter W. Morrison

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

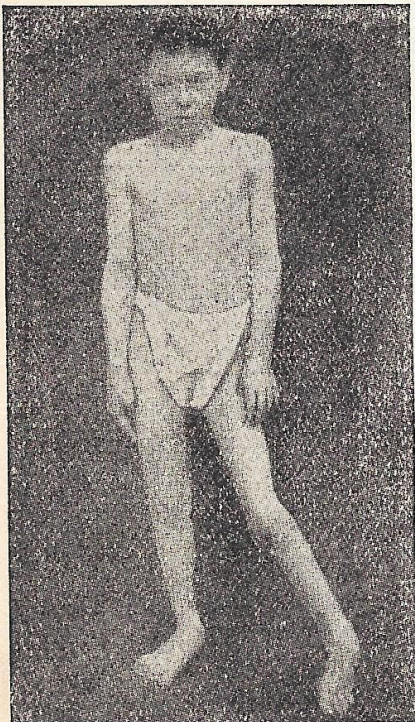

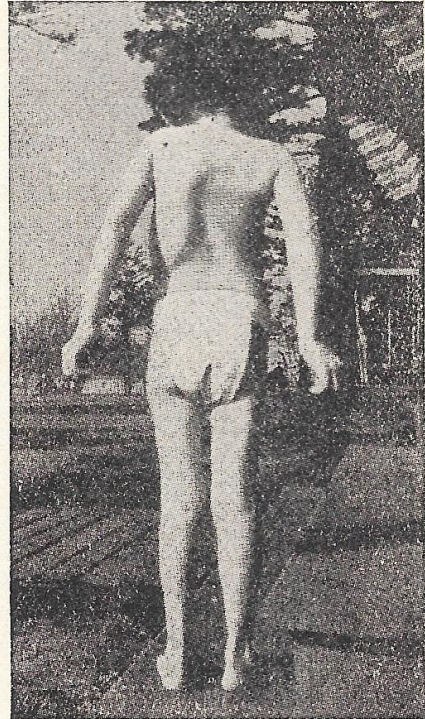

Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children

SAM P. COCHRAN, Chairman, Dallas, Texas
 W. FREELAND KENDRICK, Vice-Chairman, Philadelphia, Pa.
 FORREST ADAIR, Secretary, Atlanta, Ga.
 Office of Secretary, Atlanta, Ga.

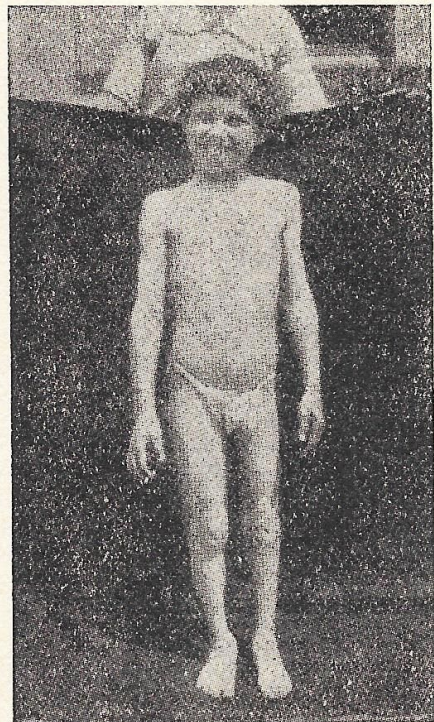

BISHOP FREDERICK W. KEATOR, Tacoma, Wash.
 Dr. OSCAR M. LANSTRUM, Helena, Mont.
 JOHN D. MCGILVRAY, San Francisco, Cal.
 PHILIP D. GORDON, Montreal, Que.

Shows a wonderful improvement in five and one-half months. This child will finally become perfectly straight. We have to go slow with these operations, because almost every organ in her body had been shoved out of place, and as she is straightened we have to give a little time for nature to properly adjust these organs.

Bessie had never had her left heel to the ground and could not get her feet any closer together than shown in the picture; yet in four months they were straightened and brought together.

The Official Board will, within a few years, have ten completely equipped hospitals in full operation, and within a very short time afterward will be operating hospitals of this same nature within the easy reach of every crippled child, regardless of color or creed. Shrinedom has entered this work with determination, and will never cease its activity until there is not remaining in this whole world one crippled child.

TO THE CANDIDATES TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETING!

You are about to undergo a journey that will forever be a milestone in your life.

A wise man gets learning even from those who have none themselves. — Koran.

What is the tie, the mystic bond that seems to bind every member of the Shrine as naught else can or does on this planet of ours?

As thousands have learned the secret it will be your privilege to know it also, and become the missionaries of "good will" toward your fellow men.

They may tell you that to advance in life one should begin at the bottom, but they forget the fellow who's learning to swim. You're it.

The turtle is built on the safety-first plan and knows how to head-in in case of danger. But you wouldn't be a turtle, would you? No.

The Shrine surcharges the heart with joy and then generates more as you jog along the Oriental highway of happiness. Keep moving!

If the class is large you may get in a pickle of a jam, but Allah will preserve you. This one is canned.

ADVICE TO NOVICES

Every Noble will lie to you, from the Potentate down, so don't believe a word you hear. That makes it easier for us to handle you. Just remember that "there's just a little bit of bad in every good Shriner."

My dear Novice, whose shining wit

Sets all the room ablaze,

Don't think yourself a happy dog

For all your merry ways;

But learn to wear a sober phiz,

Be stupid, if you can,

It's such a very serious thing

To be a funny man.

Be sure to bring along a bottle of Tanlac or Swamp Root to steady your nerves. Our regular physician will examine your heart before you start on your perilous journey, to see if you are fit for our fiendish tortures.

THE CAMMIL

From a boy's essay: The cammil is a sheep of the desert. It does not have to get angry to get its back up because Nature made it that way. When cammils go on a journey they drink as much water as to last many days. Such animals are called aquiducks. — From the Boston Transcript.

When Adam met Eve he was bashful and shy,
And he stammered and blushed every time she came nigh,
Till at last he grew bold and began to pay court
(You may put all your trust in this Shriner's report)
And he murmured to her on an evening serene,
"You're the prettiest girl that I have ever seen!"
And that's how that started.

When Eve, with a beautiful blush on her face,
Yielded shyly and sweetly to Adam's embrace,
And put up her lips for the true lover's pact
(You may set all this down as an absolute fact)
She inquired, while he breathed the fond names on his list:
"Have you said that to all of the girls you have kissed?"
And that's how that started.

When Adam asked Eve if she would be his bride,
She looked up and looked down, and she sighed and she sighed,
And she let him take hold of her lily-white hand
(This is Shrine history, as you must understand),
Then she said, in a voice that was dulcetly low:
"I must take time to think. 'Tis so sudden, you know."
And that's how that started.

When they had been married a few years or so,
Then Adam told Eve: We're invited to go
To a ceremonial and dance with some friends in Lynn
(This is truly authentic, 'though it sounds mighty thin),
Eve replied with a sad and a sorrowful air:
"I can't go. Don't you see I have nothing to wear?"
And that's how that started.

When a Fellow Needs a Friend

WELL, he doesn't need any at a Shrine ceremonial if he is a novice. All present are his friends and they are willing and anxious to make things pleasant and agreeable for him, their only desire being to be able to say "a pleasant time was had by all." But just so that the humble novice may know how to conduct himself, a few words of advice may not be inappropriate, especially at this time.

SHRINE-ISMS

Whatever happens, hold onto the rope!
Be thankful that you suffer; it's a sure sign that you are alive.
Konsider that you Koff up the Kale for the Kalamity. Always.
No; that is not a Ford back firing; it is a camel tatting a few tats.
Haw! man, you can't Ward off trouble after you brought it on yourself.
Our Second Section will give you much real pleasure — at the next meeting.
Remember "Don" and his cohorts know what they are doing; you do not.
Look pleasant, but do not grin. An open mouth is an S. O. S. signal; calls for a Slap Of Soapsuds.

Wear anything in the way of clothes you please, but the real nifty things for a novice to wear are overalls.

After it is all over, not overall, speak as kindly of us as you can. What we did was simply for your own good.

In circus parlance a "kinker" is a performer. In this you are the kinker, but you will not find any kinks in the rope.

Remember, you do not have to stand meekly on the hot sands. No one will hold you and the Nobles like to see you jump.

You will not think of many other things while the ceremonial is going on. If you bring any troubles with you, you will lose them.

If, during the initiation, a dead silence succeeds noisy and boisterous mirth, do not be alarmed. It is only the wrapper being placed around the rap.

And, whatever happens, hold onto the rope!

Think twice before you speak, and then only whisper to yourself.

Leave your dignity at home. If you bring it you will lose it.

Don't say when you will be at home. You don't know and we don't care.

A dictagraph will be at your disposal to record any message you may wish to forward to the "folks at home." Ask the director.

As a last word — hang onto that rope at any and all times. You may have intimate friends, but don't let them dissuade you from the performance of a solemn duty at a critical time in your eventful career.

If you feel yourself swinging, don't let go of the rope. The fall might be anywhere from one to a thousand feet. May Allah preserve you!

If you are married prepare your wife for a changed husband. You will still be her husband, but the Recorder will have the change.

It will be your time to laugh when you learn the ropes. In the meantime hang on.

If in great pain, why, yell; nothing will please the faithful more than to know their efforts are being appreciated.
